He thanked everyone very much for their contributions during the year. Work had continued to ensure taxpayers' money was used responsibly and effectively.

The Council had taken advantage of "Gwynedd Ni" grants by obtaining benches, tables and flower pots in Abergynolwyn, which had enhanced the appearance of the village.

There had been extensive discussions with the Gwynedd Slate Group regarding placing a wagon in front of the Centre, and this was now progressing.

Representatives from BCUHB attended the January meeting, where the importance of investment in Tywyn Hospital and the reopening of the ward was emphasised.

The cemeteries at Llanfihangel y Pennant and Y Fedw had been kept tidy. Some trees at Y Fedw cemetery had been cut during the year.

The playground had been maintained, and arrangements made for new signs there.
